Thursday, September 4, 2003

10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Bar Leaders Conference

For program details refer to page 7 and for additional information contact Carol Madeja at 213.765.1329 or carol.madeja@calbar.ca.gov.

12:15 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

Ted Kennedy, Jr.

State Bar Luncheon
Co-sponsored by the Foundation of the State Bar
Ted Kennedy, Jr.
$35 per person

Facing the Challenge

At age 12, Ted Kennedy, Jr., lost his leg to cancer. Because of that experience, he has made it his life's work to give a voice to the disabled. Speaking as both a person with a disability and as a Disability and Health Law attorney,

Kennedy examines how the Disability Rights Movement brings together a variety of political philosophies and interest groups to get legislation passed. Kennedy debunks common myths about those with disabilities and forces us to understand that they need not lead poorer lives, just different ones.

5:45 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

President's Reception
Complimentary event

The State Bar President and President-Elect cordially invite you to a opening night reception in the exhibit hall. Please stop by to network and meet with other Annual Meeting attendees. Take a leisurely stroll through the exhibit hall and visit the exhibitors in this informal setting.

Enjoy entertainment and refreshments. Please confirm your attendance by checking the appropriate box on the registration form.
