7 Strategies to Recession Proof Your Law Firm

In these difficult times every law firm needs to be proactive in recession-proofing their law firm. Join us for an interactive workshop on this timely topic and learn:

- Ways to reduce your overhead and increase your profit margins even with fewer new clients
- Low cost and no cost marketing tips
- The best practice areas right now (and the ones to avoid)
- How top law firms are growing in this economy

Stephen Fairley Managing Partner & CEO
The Rainmaker Institute, LLC

Breakout Sessions

1:15 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.

1. Critical Issues in Managing Your Law Office and Staff

Lawyers and law firms have the difficult task of knowing, understanding, and implementing the laws, rules and regulations that govern their employees and their firm operations. This program will provide the lawyer as an “employer” with the tools to learn and understand critical wage and hour and employment related laws to operate their firms in compliance with State and Federal Regulations.

MCLE: 1 Hour

Speaker: Cynthia Elkins

2. Top 10 Professional Responsibility Traps for the Unwary Solo

Professional Responsibility practice tips for the solo and small firm practitioner.

MCLE: 1 Hour Legal Ethics
Speaker: Robert A. Hawley,

Deputy Executive Director, State Bar of California

3. Strategic Skills Solos Need for Tough Times

Rainmaking programs can be helpful, but solos also need something else to enhance these valuable tools – a strategic plan for growing their practice. This program will help you determine which strategies, marketing tools, and corresponding people skills are right for you.

MCLE: 1 Hour

Speaker: Andrew Elowitz

2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

4. Top Ten Reasons Why Cases Don't Settle At Mediation and How to Avoid Them

Given the tough economic times, you want to make sure that you have the best chance of resolving your dispute at mediation. Learn some of the top reasons for why cases don't settle during mediation and how to take steps to avoid some of the problems.

MCLE: 1 Hour

Speaker: Steven Mehta

5. Ethical Issues Under Rule 3-410 where Attorney Has No Malpractice Coverage

As of January 1, 2010, CRPC 3-410 creates a duty to advise clients if you do not purchase malpractice insurance (PLI) on a continuous basis. This program explores potential ethical pitfalls and provides an overview of how PLI coverage works focusing on the solo/small firm context.

MCLE: 1 Hour Legal Ethics

Speakers: Wondie Russell and Dick O'Regan

6. Account Receivable Management

Solo and small firms need to establish account receivable policies and procedures to ensure cash flow and healthy businesses.

MCLE: 1 Hour

7. Conducting e-Discovery on a Budget

With the reliance on electronic devices to communicate and prepare documents, it has become essential to include electronically stored information (ESI) in discovery plans. This program will show cost-effective solutions for conducting e-Discovery, without having to be a computer expert. The new California Electronic Discovery Act will be explored in detail.

MCLE: 1 Hour

Speaker: Christopher Melcher

8. Is the Billable Hour Dead? How Do Alternative Fees Impact Solos

Large law firms currently are witnessing as much as 30% of their billings by alternative fee arrangements with their clients. Some are moving even to a higher percentage. What does this mean to the future of the legal profession? More significantly, what will this mean to the Solo Practitioner who meets clients “where the rubber hits the road?”

MCLE: 1 Hour of which .5 hour applies to Legal Ethics

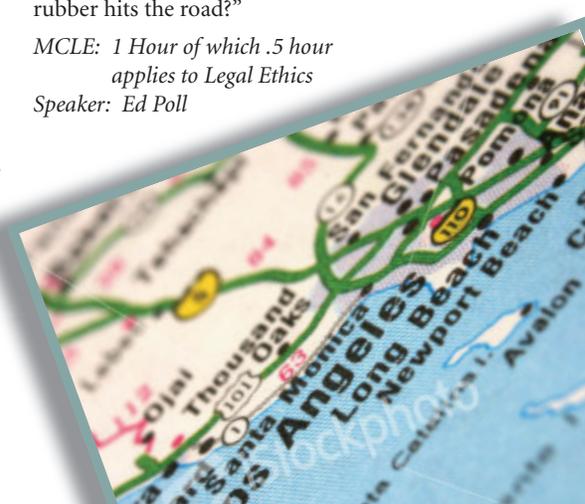

Speaker: Ed Poll

Join us
